BROOKE TESTIFIES AGAINST GEN. WOOD

Retired Officer Charges Him With Insubordination in Cuba.

IGNORED SUPERIOR OFFICERS

Washington, Dec. 1.—Major General John R. Brooke, retired, former governor general of Cuba, gave testimony before the senate committee on military affairs which charged insubordination against General Leonard Wood. At the close of his testimony a member of the committee said that it is probable General Wood will have to return from the Philippines and testify.

One of the charges made by General Brooke is that General Wood violated the order which required him to make improvements in Santiago and to submit estimates to the governor general. General Brooke said also that General Wood continually sent communications to the war department over the head of his commanding officer. General Brooke called to the attention of the committee in support of an allegation that General Wood had neglected to work in harmony with the military government the matter of General Wood's attitude toward the newspapers at Santiago, which repeatedly made attacks on General Brooke's administration. General Brooke read a number of these attacks and also his recommendation to the war department that the papers be suppressed unless they desisted.

One of the extracts from the Independencia, published at Santiago, which was read, was a bitter denunciation of General Brooke, under the caption of "God Save Cuba." The article in question was based on General Brooke's order for the centralization of affairs of the island by which receipts from all custom houses were ordered sent to Havana. The article among other things said that if carried into effect the order soon would prohibit the people of Santiago from breathing without permission from General Brooke; that it was a matter of life and death to the province of Santiago to get the order rescinded. A large number of telegrams of indignation sent to President McKinley were appended to the article.

General Brooke read a letter which he had sent to the adjutant general of the war department asking that General Wood be instructed to prohibit the publication of such articles during the period of military government. He also read General Wood's reply to the adjutant general, which, the witness said, had been sent over the head of his superior officer, saying that freedom of speech, untrammeled criticism of the military government and absolute independence in all matters, was a necessary part of the education of the Cubans to fit them to conduct a liberal government.

In the course of General Brooke's testimony he said that General Wood became unduly excited when the Cubans held indignation meetings at Santiago for the purpose of protesting against the centralization order. The witness laid before the committee a copy of a telegram he received from General Wood, saying that the Cubans looked upon the order as approaching a calamity, and that discontent and profound business depression existed. Finally General Wood prayed that the customs receipts be left under local control. The witness declared that the attitude of General Wood was responsible to a great extent in adding to the disquiet of the Cubans.

The members of the committee took a great interest in General Brooke's testimony, and steps were taken to have copied a number of the papers he offered in evidence.

KAISER'S VOICE ALMOST GONE

Asserted He Will Never Recover Full Use of Vocal Cords.

Berlin, Nov. 30.—Disquieting reports about Emperor William's condition are current. The vocal cords are permanently injured, it is asserted, and at best the emperor can never fully recover his voice. It is pointed out that such result does not follow the removal of an ordinary polypoid growth, and it is explained that the emperor put off the operation too long. The emperor is described as looking exceedingly ill.

Lord Lonsdale, who spent six hours with him talking over the transoceanic yacht race, for which the emperor decided to postpone offering a cup on account of his health, says the emperor was very cheerful, but unable to speak except in a loud whisper.

Menelik Welcomes American Consul.

Djibouti, French Somaliland, Nov. 30.—Robert P. Skinner, United States consul at Marseilles, who is going to Abyssinia to conduct negotiations with King Menelik, with his escort reached Harrar, Abyssinia, Saturday. Abyssinian troops met the party eight miles outside the town, and General Ras Makonnen, with a bodyguard of 1000, greeted the column when within two miles of the city. The new palace was placed at the disposal of the Americans. The scene was extremely picturesque. The Americans met with unprecedented cordiality. Emperor Menelik has sent Consul Skinner a message of welcome.

Collieries Close Indefinitely.

Shamokin, Pa., Dec. 1.—The Centralia collieries have closed down for an indefinite period, causing 2500 men and boys to be thrown out of employment. The collieries are owned by the Lehigh Coal Company, which does not give a reason for the shutdown. It is believed, though, that the closing of the mines is due to poor coal trade.

RECEIVERS FOR STEEL COMPANY

Susquehanna Could Not Show Financial Results Required.

Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 1.—P. Eckhart Slaymaker, of this city, and C. C. Kauffman, of Columbia, have been appointed receivers for the Susquehanna Iron and Steel Company. The application for the receivership was made some time ago by John Q. Denny, of Columbia, and opposed by the faction in control, which is headed by Ex-Senator Charles A. Porter of Philadelphia.

After the hearing Judge Landis announced that he would give the management until the 1st of January to show to the court that the business could be operated on a paying basis, and if they failed to do this a receiver would be appointed. Within the past few days representatives of the management called on Judge Landis and stated that they were willing that a receiver should be appointed immediately. Ex-District Attorney Graham, counsel for the management, filed a statement in which he said they were convinced they could not show a financial condition on January 1 satisfactory to the court, and therefore prayed that the receiver be now appointed. The bond of the receivers has not yet been fixed.

The Republic Iron and Steel Company was organized in May, 1899. Its authorized capital stock is $25,000,000 of preferred shares, and $30,000,000 of common shares. Of this amount, $20,852,000 of preferred stock and $27,352,000 of common stock have been issued, according to the last semi-annual report. Dividends at the rate of 7 per cent. a year have been paid on the preferred stock from the first quarter up to the present time.

GEN. REYES IN WASHINGTON

Colombian Peace Commissioners Confer With Dr. Herran.

Washington, Nov. 30. — General Rafael Reyes, the Colombian peace commissioner, and his colleagues continued their conferences with Dr. Tomas Herran, the Colombian charge d'affaires at Washington, regarding the Panama canal treaty and affairs on the Isthmus. As a preliminary to any action whatever, General Reyes is familiarizing himself with every feature of the Isthmian question about which Dr. Herran is able to give him information. There are many antecedent circumstances bearing on the negotiation of the defunct Hay-Herran convention of which it is desirable that General Reyes shall have knowledge before he proceeds with his mission. All these matters are being gone over very carefully by General Reyes and Dr. Herran, and it is expected that several days will elapse before developments take place.

"No plan as yet has been mapped out governing the mission of General Reyes," said Dr. Herran, "and we have no statement as yet to make to the public."

At the first opportunity Dr. Herran will present General Reyes to Secretary Hay. At this meeting, it is expected, there will be an informal discussion of the general's mission, the results of which in a measure at least will determine his future course.

RUNAWAY CARS WRECK TRAIN

Engineer and Fireman Seriously Injured In Crash Near Hazleton, Pa.

Hazleton, Pa., Dec. 1.—Three gondolas loaded with coal, which broke away in some unknown manner from a siding at the lumber yard station, four miles distant, ran down the Weatherly mountain and collided a mile west of Weatherly, 12 miles from Hazleton, with a Lehigh Valley passenger train from Bethlehem and Philadelphia. The passenger engine, which was crawling up the steep grade at the rate of about 20 miles an hour, was thrown across the track on an embankment. Engineer Oscar Kleckner and Fireman Robert Hill, both of this city, were pinned under the wreck. Kleckner escaped with severe contusions. Hill had his right leg cut off and is so badly injured otherwise that he cannot live. The baggage car and the two coaches kept the track, but all the passengers were badly shaken up. James Laughran and C. H. Keck, of Hazleton, and E. D. Julick, of Bath, N. Y., were slightly injured.

Germany Recognizes Panama.

Washington, Dec. 1.—Germany has recognized the Republic of Panama as a sovereign and independent state. Baron Von Dem Busch-Haddenhausen, first secretary of embassy and charge d'affaires, addressed a note to M. Bunau-Varilla, the minister from Panama, informing him that the German government having received his notification of the creation of the new republic and his formal assurances that Panama assumed and would execute all obligations contained in the treaties between Germany and Columbia so far as they effected territory over which Panama is now sovereign. His majesty, the emperor and king, extended full recognition to the new republic and best wishes for its prosperity and long life.

British Ambassador Arrives.

New York, Nov. 30. — Sir Henry Mortimer Durand, the new British ambassador to the United States, arrived on the steamer Etruria. Lady Durand and Miss Amy Durand will follow him in about a fortnight. Other passengers were C. John Ritchie, son of the former English chancellor of the exchequer, and Charles Ritchie, son of the lard mayor of London.

Father Accidentally Shot His Son.

Altoona, Pa., Dec. 1.—While George Smeltzer and his son, Harrison, aged 16, of Roaring Springs, were out hunting near their home, the father tripped over a log and his gun was discharged. The ball entered the son's abdomen, fatally injuring him.

ROOSEVELT ON POSTAL FRAUDS

Loss of Office Not Sufficient Punishment For the Guilty.

SUGGESTS NEW LEGISLATION

Washington, Nov. 30. — President Roosevelt's comment on the postal frauds has been made public. In it he reviews the causes which led to the investigation and heartily endorses Assistant Postmaster General Bristow's report. After naming the 32 persons indicted (13 officials in the service and 19 outsiders), the president names the chief offenders as James T. Tyner, former assistant attorney general for the postoffice department; A. W. Machen, former superintendent of free delivery, and George W. Beavers, former superintendent of salaries and allowances. In concluding, Mr. Roosevelt says:

"I heartily approve of the recommendation of Messrs. Conrad and Bonaparte that the statute of limitations be extended in the case of government servants to a period of at least five years, for the persons who in such positions of trust engage in corrupt practices can ordinarily conceal their guilt for a longer time than is covered by the present short statute of limitations. Moreover, our experience shows that outsiders claiming political influence sometimes sell their influence to candidates for office, or in other words blackmail these candidates. There should be legislation which will permit of summary dealing with such offenders.

"However, the prime need is not new legislation, but the punishment of those who offend against existing laws. The postoffice department is making certain changes in the method of administration, notably in the method of inspection, by which the service will be improved and the chance of corruption existing without discovery be minimized; but the only way to meet the real evil is to punish the offenders, by removal in any event, and here possible by prosecution under the criminal statutes. In any great business, public or private, wrongdoing is certain at times to occur. The way to guard against it is rigorously to scrutinize the character of those appointed, carefully to supervise their actions after appointment and finally to punish with relentless severity those who go wrong. All this is being done.

"The immediate reformation of the service by the turning out of the offenders is not in itself enough to meet the demands of justice. The cases against both those within and those without the post office department, who by their acts have brought themselves within the grasp of the law, will be pushed with the utmost vigor. Every effort must be made to see that both the delinquent official and the outsider who shares his guilt are punished to the limit of the law. In pursuance of this policy the individuals above enumerated have been indicted. In no case has the indictment been sought save where the officials of the government were convinced of the man's guilt; and in every case the government will exhaust every expedient in its power in the effort to see that justice is meted out to the offenders. Those in the public service whose duty it is must ever be vigilant in the detection of wrongdoing, fearless in its exposure, relentless in its prosecution; but in the last resort, when everything which the public official, whether legislator, judge or executive officer, can do has been done, it remains for the jury, drawn from the people and representing the people, to do even-handed justice, shielding the innocent, but declining to be misled by any plea into refraining from punishment of the guilty.

"No crime calls for sterner reprobation than the crime of the corruptionist in public life and of the man who seeks to corrupt him. The bribe giver and the bribe taker are equally guilty. Both alike sin against the primary law of the state's safety. All questions of difference in party policy sink into insignificance when the people of this country are brought face to face with a question like this, which lies at the root of honest and decent government. On this question and on all others like it we can afford to have no division among good citizens. In the last resort good laws and good administration alike must rest upon the broad basis of sound public opinion. A dull public conscience, an easy-going acquiescence in corruption, infallibly means debasement in public life, and such debasement in the end means the ruin of free institutions. Self-government becomes a farce if the representatives of the people corrupt others or are themselves corrupted. Freedom is not a gift which will tarry long in the hands of the dishonest or of those so foolish or so incompetent as to tolerate dishonesty in their public servants. Under our system all power comes from the people and all punishment rests ultimately with the people. The toleration of the wrong, not the exposure of the wrong, is the real offense."

Lived Two Days With Bullets In Heart

Newark, N. J., Dec. 1.—An autopsy made on the body of Luigi Russomanno, who died at his home here, revealed the fact that two bullets had pierced his heart. The fact that the man had been shot was discovered by the undertaker who was called in to prepare the body for burial, it having been stated by members of the family that the man had died a natural death. The police learned that Russomanno had been shot in a fight in a saloon on Saturday, that and with two bullets in his heart he had walked home and lived nearly two days.

EIGHT HOUR LAW VALID

U. S. Supreme Court Sustains Legality of Kansas Statute.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The supreme court of the United States has sustained the validity of the Kansas act prescribing eight hours as a lawful day's work on all public works and prescribing penalties for contractors who permit or require their workmen to work longer.

The Kansas law, whose validity was called into question in the suit, was enacted in 1891, and provided that eight hours should constitute a day's work for workmen employed by or on behalf of the state, or by any county or city or other municipality in the state. It also prohibits contractors from requiring laborers engaged on work for the state to perform more than eight hours' labor in a day. Both fine and imprisonment for any violation of the law. The case decided today was that of W.W. Atkins vs. the State of Kansas. Atkins had a contract with the corporation of Kansas City, Kan., for paving a street, and he was charged with requiring a workman named Reese to labor 10 hours a day. He was prosecuted in the state courts, where the decisions were uniformly against him. Atkins appealed from the decision of the state supreme court to the federal supreme court, alleging that the statute is in violation of the first section of the 14th amendment of the constitution in that it denied him due protection of the law and deprived him of his property without a process.

The opinion was based on the theory that all the municipalities of a state are the creatures of the state; that work for them is of a public character and does not infringe on the personal liberty of any one.

HAS 1300 CASES OF TYPHOID

Butler, Pa., at the Mercy of a Serious Epidemic.

Butler, Pa., Nov. 30.—Since the 15th of September this town has had over 1300 cases of typhoid fever and 28 deaths. The state board of health investigated the cause of the unusual conditions and issued a statement in which they say the borough of Butler has been visited with a serious epidemic of typhoid fever in its various types, and that the cause is the pollution of the water used in the greater part of the borough. The pollution is clearly traceable to cases of typhoid fever in close proximity to Thorn Run dam, the reservoir of the Butler Water company.

The board found that the premises surrounding the farm house from which the fever drainage was carried into the Thorn Run reservoir had been thoroughly ditched so no drainage can now reach the dam.

A meeting of the general relief committee was held and the finance committee reported $8000 raised. Fifty cots have been placed in the abandoned pickle factory near here, and the residence of Gebhart Wagner has been fitted up as a temporary hospital. In response to appeals, nurses are arriving on every train, but domestic help to wash the clothes and bedding of the patients is as badly needed as nurses.

Father L. A. Carroll, who has 125 fever patients in his own congregation, makes this statement:

"The people of Butler are at the mercy of typhoid fever. We need girls to work and who know something about nursing. As you love God and your neighbor, come to Butler's assistance."

WOMEN OPPOSE REED SMOOT

Campaign to Deprive Him of Seat In Senate to Open In Washington.

Washington, Dec. 1.—The first step in a concerted plan of campaign to have Senator Reed Smoot, of Utah, deprived of his seat in the senate will be taken here Thursday, when a convention of delegates from the National Congress of Mothers' Clubs, representatives of other unaffiliated women's societies and several prominent citizens will be held at the Church of the Covenant. Mrs. Frederick Schoff, of Philadelphia, president of the National Congress of Mothers Clubs, will preside. Mrs. Schoff sent out a general call for the meeting. All women having at heart "the interests of American womanhood" are urged to be present, and ministers of the gospel are invited to attend. The circular contains a request to the clergy of the country to hold special services on Sunday, December 6, for the purpose of preaching against the Mormon senator, and to offer prayers for his expulsion from the senate.

Captain Carter Released.

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 28. — The doors of the Leavenworth prison opened at 10 o'clock this morning for Oberlin M. Carter, formerly a captain of engineers in the United States army. Convicted by a court martial of conspiracy to defraud the government, he has finished a term of five years' imprisonment, having a credit of 10 months for good behavior. Carter left for Chicago, where he will meet Horace G. Stone, his attorney, who has been collecting evidence in the civil case pending in the United States court, through which the former army officer hopes to get vindication.

Cleveland to Foreclose Railroad.

Franklin, Pa., Dec. 1.—Former President Grover Cleveland is about to foreclose a mortgage upon the narrow gauge Bradford, Bordell and Kinzua Railroad, of which he is the exclusive holder. At one time this road paid large dividends. The road is only 16 miles long, and when it was built its promoters induced Mr. Cleveland to take the entire bond issue. Mr. Cleveland still has the bonds, and the owners, it is said, owe him so much lapsed interest that he is going to sell the equipment at Bradford on December 1.

DESPERATE BATTLE WITH BANDITS

CONFESSED TO EIGHT MURDERS

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Chained wrist to wrist, their hair matted with dried blood, their clothing covered with dust and dirt, two beardless boys—Peter Niedermeier and Harvey Van Dine—sat in the presence of Mayor Harrison and Chief of Police O'Neil, calmly confessing to their share in a three months' career of crime, which has included eight murders, the wounding of five other men and a long series of robberies. The two young bandits, neither of whom is over 21 years of age, together with their companion, Emil Roeskie, who is no older, were captured near Liverpool, Ind., after a fight in which they battled against policemen, railway detectives, railway laborers and farmers. One man was killed, another fatally wounded and all three of the young bandits were wounded, but not seriously.

The three men were wanted by the police for complicity in the murders at the car barns of the Chicago City Railway company, on August 30, when two men were killed, a third badly wounded, and $2,250 stolen from the company. Gustave Marx, who last Saturday night murdered Officer John Quinn when the policeman endeavored to place him under arrest, confessed after his capture that he, in company with the three men, had committed the crimes at the car barns.

Word was brought to the police by T. S. Reichers, a school teacher near Clark Station, Ind., that three men answering the description of those wanted for the car barn murders were living in the dugout, and eight detectives were sent there.

As soon as they were in sight of the place the officers advanced in a circle upon the dugout where the three robbers were supposed to be concealed. Detective Driscoll, who was walking in closer than the others, called out: "It doesn't look as though there is anybody in there." Driscoll picked up a chunk of wood and hurled it at the dugout. Instantly there was a flash, a report, and Driscoll fell in a heap, shot through the abdomen. One of his fellow-officers stooped to raise him, and the other six opened fire on the dugout, from which the shots were now coming thick and fast. While the fire was at its hottest, Van Dine and Roeski rushed out, followed a few minutes later by Niedermeier. The latter ran to the tracks of the Michigan Central railway, and, throwing himself flat on the roadbed, steadied his arm on the rail as he kept up a rapid fire with three revolvers. Roeski ran for the brush, but Van Dine retreated slowly, although the air around him was filled with bullets and the snow at his feet was kicked up by them. He is a splendid marksman, and, catching sight of Detective Zimmer, who was behind a tree, he fired. Zimmer went down with a bullet in the head. As he fell, Van Dine fired again, and the second bullet tore through Zimmer's arm.

Roeski had by this time disappeared, and Van Dine and Niedermeier, placing their revolvers in their pockets, made a run for freedom. The detectives fired constantly, but the bandits escaped. After running about a mile across country, they came to the tracks of the Pennsylvania railroad. A switch engine, with a train of cars, was close at hand, and, hurrying up to it, the men ordered Brakeman Sovea to uncouple the train from the locomotive. He refused and attempted to take Niedermeier's revolver from him. The latter instantly sent a bullet through the brakeman's brain, laying him dead in the snow. Springing past Sovea's body, the bandits mounted the locomotive with revolvers in hand and ordered the engineer to move out in a hurry, which he did, going in the direction of Liverpool, Ind. After two miles had been covered, the men ordered the engineer to slow down, and, leaping to the ground, disappeared in the woods.

When they left the train, both men were nearly exhausted and unable to travel. The country at that place is rough, sandy and cut up by gravel pits. The farmers, railway laborers and officers of the Pennsylvania road were coming up fast, and soon were close on the fugitive's heels. It was easy to track them in the newly fallen snow, and the hunt was speedily closed. The men were seen as they dodged about in the sand dunes, and the farmers, most of whom were armed with double-barreled shot guns, opened fire on them. Neidermeier received a charge full in the head, and the blood streamed down his face and into his eyes, blinding him so that he could hardly see. A shot grazed Van Dine's head, carrying off some of his hair, and his wounded leg was weakening. The posse was closing in on all sides. There was no escape, and it was evident to both men that the time had come either to surrender or to fight to the death, and they threw down their arms.

Following fresh footprints in the snow from the scene of the capture of Niedermeier and Van Dine, Fred Miller, Louis Miller, John Dillon, Charles Hamilton and Hugo Kemp, residents of Tolleston, Ind., captured Emil Roeski, sitting on a bench in the Wabash station at Aetna, Ind., a town four miles northeast of Liverpool, Ind. The arrest was made shortly after Roeski had missed a train to Chicago. He was unarmed.

THURDAY, NOVEMBER 19

Aycock and Simmons should try to stop this great increase in crimes in our state, especially as this is not campaign year and there is no need for lawless redshirters to terrorize the state. There does not seem to be any reason for this great increase in crimes in the state under democratic "good government," unless it was the bad precedent set by the lawless redshirters that paraded the state in 1898 and 1900 in the interest of the democratic machine and the protection by that machine of democratic registrars from justice who had been accused of stealing.

If Messrs Aycock and Simmons would canvass the state and tell these same men that the "nigger" would get them if they didn't do better we are sure that the number of crimes committed in the state would greatly diminish when the next year.—Caucasian.

There was an insane person carried to the Asylum in Raleigh last week but the patient had to be taken back home as there was no room in the asylum for another patient. There was room in the asylum at Morganton but they had no money with which to feed and clothe more patients.

With the Asylums in this condition it looks as if it would be a good idea to abolish three of the Superior court judgeships, which were created for party pets, and abolish the office of a few extra clerks and appropriate the money for the care of the insane of the state. As it is now many of the insane have to be cared for in county jails and classed with common criminals. It is enough to make some people go crazy to see how their money is spent by the democrats at the pie counter.

Our visit to Hyde County during court week was one of more than ordinary pleasure and interest. First of all Hyde County is one of the very best counties in the State, viewed from an Agricultural stand point It is the very Eldorado of the Agriculturist. Its lands are unsurpassed by any in the state for productiveness. Its yield of Corn, Cotton, Peas, Potatoes, or any other farm product per acre is simply enormous. If we were to tell our readers what we have seen of the growth of Corn, Cotton and other crops in Hyde our reputation for truth would be in danger with some of them.

Then Hyde county is noted for both the quantity and quality of her Oysters, Hyde county is full of Oysters and whoever tast one of them never forgets the rare richness of its flavor, the taking of these oysters from the waters gives employment to hundreds of men all through the winter months at good wages, Near Swan Quarter the capitol of Hyde there is located a large Oyster Packing and Canning establishment that consumes thousands and thousands of bushels of Oysters every season. And while we are near Swan Quarter let us say this is quite a nice and thrifty little town and has for its citizens some as good and generous people as lives.

Hyde is full of good and generous people and it was a real pleasure to meet again our old friends A. Barry the polite and efficient Post Maste, Tom Gibbs, Jim and Dallas Wahab, Rev. W. J. Everton, the beloved pastor of the Methodist churches in that section, J. W. Hayes the reliable horse dealer, D. T. Watts the genial whole soul oysterman, T. W. Harris C. N. Creedle, W. W. Boomer, Greely Brian the gentlemanly proprietor of the Hotel, and a number of others, whose names we do not now recall all of whome we hold in the highest esteem. One we missed, our old friend Wilcke Lucas we were sorry to hear that he was sick. he is one of Hydes most prominent citizen and our friend, and we pray for his recovery.

Hyde in addition to her rich lands and luscious bivalves is also noted for the quantity and quality of her timbers. Her forest is thickly set with a great variety of the very best timber trees. Oak, Pine, Cypress, Poplar and Gum, grow in abundance, and the Alleghney Company at Scranton with their mill capacity of twenty millions feet annually are utilizing large quantities of it.

These mills give employment to hundreds of men and put a great deal of money a float in that section, and makes the whole community prosperous. In addition to their lumber interest, this company runs a large general mercantile business at Scranton amounting in volume to some forty or fifty thousand dollars a year. This is a big thing for Scranton and Hyde county and Mr. H. J. Lovick the manager of this department is not only one of the cleverist of gentlemen springing as he did from one of the best famelise in the county but is allied by marriage with one of the historic families of the state. His wife is the grandaughter of John Clark of Hyde who was the father of Henry S. Clark who for some years Represented this district in Congress, and Capt. John D. Clark of the U. S. Army, Capt. Clark if we mistake not graduated at West Point in the same class with Gen. James Longstreet (of Codfederate War fame) Capt. Clark was a distinguished North Carolinian and was presented with a sword by the citizens of Wilmington, N. C. for merituous conduct in battle. This sword is now in possession of Mrs Lovick. Capt. Clark was killed during the Mexican War, but we do not remember in what battle.

A South Carolina preacher, pastor of a country church, has received a severe shock, of which he tells in the Courier. He speaks in a half humorous vein, but he deals with a matter that sadly needs the attention of the churches. Rev. O. L. Martin is the pastor. He says; "I write to tell you that I have the honor to be the pastor of one of the most fossilized churches in this country! Yes, sir! Not long ago when I was there they read the minutes of the previous meeting, in which minutes it was recorded that they had excluded a member from the fellowship of the church. I immediately called for the correction of the minutes, and they said they were correct. I paused, and, of course, looked surprised. I thought there would be no trouble in interpreting the pause. But, would you believe it, my fellow citizens! not a man of them moved to rescind the action of the previous meeting. I withstood them to their faces and they would not relent. They grew bold and said, This is not the first time we have done like this. Said I, You don't say! Yes, sir; a brother went to law with a brother instead of bringing his grievance to the church, and out he went. Shades of the mighty Paul! said I, They waxed valiant, and one fellow raised himself on tiptoe and, with a look of pride and absolute satisfaction with himself and his actions, said. We turned out a deacon, Then I gasped and staggered back. When I had sufficiently recovered to speak again, I said, My brother, he must have had religion! Yes, he said, he did; the modern type. Said I Sanctified? No, not exactly, he said but he owed a brother a just debt and wouldn't pay it, and out he went. Tell it not in Gath, publish it not in the streets of Askalon, lest it become epidemic and break out among the liquor drinkers and swindelers, swearers and adulterers, and great havoc be played with our figures in the next yeor-book!"—Index.

We call your attention to Geo. W. Barrow's advertisement which appears in this issue If you are in need of anything in his line it will pay you to see him before you purchase your goods.

The Seawell rotten egg case is at last settled, and H. F. Seawell, of Carthage, will get his $4,500 from the Seaboard Air Line Railroad, t pay him for services as a buffer for a dozen or so of decomposed hen fruit, which his person stopped at the railroad station at Shelby a few years ago, just after he had made a campaign speech as a Populist candidate for Lieutenant Governor.

The Supreme Court a few days ago dismissed the petition of the railroad to re-hear its appeal from the judgment of the lower court. It will be remembered that on the appeal the Supreme Court affirmed the lower court's judgment awarding $4,500 damages to Seawell. Then the Seaboard petitioned for another hearing of the case, with the result mentioned. The opinion of the court was written by Chief Justice Walter Clark, and Associate Justice H. G. Connor, wrote a concurring opinion, Those opinions were confined entirely to the legal questions at issue, and did not in any way take into consideration the actors in the egg-throwing incident at Shelby that has become of almost historical interest. This ends it for all time, as there is nothing in the case to warrant an appeal to the United States Supreme Court.

The facts in the case very briefly were these: Seawell had made a campaign speech in Shelby as the Populist candidate for Lieutenant-Governor. After his speech he went to the station of the Seaboard Air Line Railroad to take his train out of town. It seems that a crowd of young men of the town followed the speaker to the station. They were liberally supplied with eggs that had seen better days, and just as Seawell went to board his train they let fly at him and succeeded in pretty thoroughly plastering him with the decayed hen fruit.

Seawell sued the railroad for damages on the ground that they were liable for not protecting a passenger at their station about to board one of their trains. Some nice legal points were involved and the case was fought hard, every inch of ground being contested stubbornly. It has been in the courts in one way and another for several years. It came out on the evidence that the crowd that egged Seawell came out of the office of the Station agent, and moreover that that official threw at least one egg himself and urged on the others to throw eggs and laughed when the eggs exploded upon Seawell. These last things were the main facts he relied upon to obtain damages.

The opinion of the Supreme Court is entirely upon the liability of the railroad company to damages for failure to use all means possible for the protection of its passengers.

One of the most remarkable cases of a cold, deep-seated on the lungs, causing pneumonia, is that of Mrs. Gertrude E. Fenner, Marion, Ind. who was entirely cured by the use of One Minute Cough Cure. Four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me entirely of the cough, strengthened my lungs and restored me to my normal weight, health and strength." Sold by Standard Pharmacy. *

SUDDEN DEATH!

The Community Shocked.

"Last evening, just after tea, while Mr Thomas Hartman, a prominent and highly respected citizen, apparently in the best of health and spirits, was reading a newspaper the sheet suddenly fell to the floor; he placed one hand over his heart, gasped and sank back in his chair, evidently unconscious. The family were stricken with consternation, and immediately summoned a physician. But it was too late. The old gentleman was dead. Physicians gave heart disease as the cause."—Hollbrook Herald.

Every day the papers contain statements similar to the above. Even youth is no defense against heart disease, and the awful rapidity with which it is claiming victims forces upon all a conviction of its prevalence

Reader, if you have a symptom of this dread disease do not hesitate a moment attending to it. Delay is always dangerous in heart disease too often fatal. Some symptoms of heart disease are shortness of breath, fluttering, or palpitation, pain or tenderness in left side, shoulder, or arm, irregular pulse, smothering, weak or hungry spells, fainting spells, dropsy, etc.

Charles Raven, York, Pa., writes: "I suffered from heart disease 22 years. Frequently my heart would seem to jump into my mouth, and my condition made me very melancholy. Physicians gave me no relief. I became so much worse that I was not expected to live, but was induced as a last resort to use Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure. The second day I felt greatly relieved, and at the end of ten days I felt like a king. My gratitude is too deep for expression."

Joseph Cockwell, Uniontown, Pa., aged 53 years, says: "For four years previous to beginning the use of Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure I was afflicted with heart disease in a very severe form. Had taken all so-called cures, but with no benefit until I used Dr. Miles' remedy, one bottle of which cured me."

J. D. Bethards, High Point, Ia., makes the following statement: "I was a wreck from heart disease and stomach trouble when I began using Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and Nerve and Liver Pills. As a result of their use I am well."

Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is sold by all druggists on a positive guarantee first sent by the Dr Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, six bottles for $5, express prepaid. Often The Kidneys Are Weakened by Over-Work.

Unhealthy Kidneys Make Impure Blood.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

The kidneys filter and purify the blood—that is their work.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly," begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince anyone.

If you are sick you can make no mistake by first doctoring your kidneys. The mild and the extraordinary effect of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney remedy, is soon realized. It stands the highest for its wonderful cures of the most distressing cases, and is sold on its merits by all druggists in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle Home of Swamp-Root. by mail free, also a pamphlet telling you how to find out if you have kidney or bladder trouble. Mention this paper when writing to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Weak Hearts

Are due to indigestion. Ninety-nine of every one hundred people who have heart trouble can remember when it was simple indigestion. It is a scientific fact that all cases of heart disease, not organic, are not only traceable to, but are the direct result of indigestion. All food taken into the stomach which fails of perfect digestion ferments and swells the stomach, puffing it up against the heart. This interferes with the action of the heart, and in the course of time that delicate but vital organ becomes diseased.

Mr. D. Kauble, of Nevada, O., says: I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

Thanksgiving Day.

The Norfolk Dispatch, the paper that gives to-days news to day and all for one cent is on sale every evening at C. E. Burkes.

New York, November 8.—Rev. Dr. Parkhurst announced in the course of his sermon in the Madison Square Presbyterian Church this morning, that New York is only seven weeks from hell on earth. The mild laughter in the congregation which greeted this announcement was instantly hushed by the pulpit and said:

"How any one can laugh at that I don't understand. God have mercy on him.

Dr. Parkhurst told his hearers what he considered to be the real cause of last Tuesday's defeat in the election. He did not get it from either a Republican or a Democrat, he said, but the result was not due to the great ignorant foreign population or even to the "multitudinous class of reprobates" and "thoroughbred depravity" in the city.

"The ultimate cause," he continued, "is our half-breed integrity; integrity that is dreadfully mortified and distressed by iniquity that asserts itself under forms that are coarse, but which gets along with perfect comfort with identically the same uiiniqty when tinselled with touches of the aesthetic and gotten out in an edition deluxe.

"I am not here to plead for the wretches that gamble away their money and their souls on the Bowery, but I wish there was some moral system of Pinkerton detection that would let in the light of publicity on the gentlemen and ladies who gamble up and down our central avenues, and who do not call it gambling, because it is done at home and in company with nice people."

This is a time when all sentiment in the community is sagging, according to Dr. Parkhurst. One indication is that marriage is becoming an amusement.

"If we can't clear the carpet for a new wife by worrying the present wife into the grave," he said, "we cut the Gordian knot by pushing the case before a divorce court, a species of Mormonism that might have brought blushes to Brigham Young."

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses I felt relieved and soon thereafte was entirely cured and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass of Freemont, N. C. writes. Only 50c at all druggist

Richmond, Va., Nov. 30.—Rev. Dr. Robert Strange, formerly of North Carolina, now rector of St. Paul's church, the most fashionable in Richmond, preached a powerful sermon last night against the practice of gambling, declaring it to be stealing, nothing more nor less.

He said he would preach a series of sermons during Advent in which he would show this to be true. Recently he directed a sermon against gambling among women, unhesitatingly calling progressive euchre and any game for prizes such.

Yesterday morning he startled his congregation by expressing belief in the existence of purgatory, such as a Catholics believe in. Punishment of the wicked was for a time but not eternal. This doctrine is entirely new for protestants.

We have seen the question asked several times recently, "If the democrats are in favor of an honest election, why did they kill the bill in the last Legislature making the stealing of votes a misdemeanor." This question is very easily answered. If they had past such an act the state would have gone Republican in 1904 by an over whelming majority and the penitentiary would be over run with democratic election thieves. And this the legislators knew and tried to prevent by not passing such an act.

But then the people are becoming awake to the sense of their duty to themselves, their homes and their country, and will not submit to the rulings of such masters, as the leaders of the democratic party has proved themselves to be, but will come together, with one accord, and cast their ballots for the Republican ticket and good government, and against democratic ring rule, and woe be unto him who tries stealing their ballots.

A Runaway Bicycle.

Terminated with an ugly cut on the leg of J. B. Orner, Franklin Grove, Ill. It developed a stubborn ulcer, unyielding to doctors and remedies for four years. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured It'r just as good for Burns, Scalds, Skin Eruptions and Piles, 25c. at all drug stores.

The writer does not go to town, upon an average, more than once in three months, and many times it is much more than three months between trips. As a consequence he is not known personally to very many people about town. When he does go he seldom wastes any time "slicking up" but hops into the wagon, arrayed in his every-day working garb which is generally pretty common, and goes on to town, gets his load of fertilizer or feed and attends to what other business he may have on hand and comes back home, often making the trip, a distance of 16 miles, in half a day or half a day and part of the night. While very few people know me, I know a good many persons about town; know them by sight and I know a good deal more about some of them than what usually appears on the surface.

One morning a few weeks ago I went to town after a load of fertilizer and as I wanted to get back by noon I had no time to discuss sentimental questions or political issues. The first man I approached had just sold the last bag of goods he had of the kind I wanted and told me so in few words. He did not ask me to buy something I did not want nor did he waste time in telling me what Mister so and so had said about some other brand he happened to have on hand and wanted to get off. He simply said "I haven't got it" and that was the end of the matter. I have heard that man curse until I imagined that I could smell sulphur and by most people who know him, he is considered a hard wad; but the man has got business sense and I believe he is honest, and that is saying a good deal for this day and generation.

The next man I approached is a prominent man in business and religious circles. I have known him for years and he has known me, at times when he thought it was to his interest to know as many people as possible. He was standing by the shed or fertilizer house superintending the loading of a farmer's wagon with fertilizer I addressed him as though that was the first time I had ever seen him in my life. I said "Mister, what is the highest grade of acid phosphate you have on sale?" The man turned and glancing at me from head to foot he seemed to take in the old hat with brim torn lose half way round, the old coat with a sleeve of another color and overalls and shoes to match and I saw a smile issue from one corner of his mouth cross over his nose, spread out and loose itself behind the ear on the other side of his head from whence it originated. No doubt he thought he had a soft case on hand. "That said he pointing to a pile of bags and calling a high sounding name that was framed to make such as he took me to be, believe it was bone meal. "What per cent, does it analize," I inquired. "About fourteen or fifteen per cent." he replied. I stepped up in the shed and on seeing the analysis on the bags I said: "what do you sell your 13 per cent. goods at?" The fellow then kinder smiled from the other corner of his mouth and looked as if he thought maybe he had treed the wrong coon and replied in a very mild, gentle and considerate tone, "One dollar and a half." "Dont want it" I said and walked away. I had been offered the same grade of goods several cents cheaper and while it had no "bone" in the name it had just as much in the bag as the other for there was no bone about either. But the point I want the reader to consider is this: Did that man lie when he told me that goods would analyze 14 or 15 per cent. phospho. ric acid or what did he do? What did he tell me that for and how did he know anything about the analysi other than what was on the bag? What did the manufacturer put 13 on a bag containing 14 or 15 per cent. goods for? There is not a farmer in North Carolina that hasn't got sense enough to know that the Fertilizer Trust dosn't do business that way, if he will only take time to think The man I was talking to knows it and I am not going to say what he is or what he might do; but I "believe" him to be a hypocrite and also believe he would deceive you if he could and he thought there was a dime for him in the operation

I next halted at the place of a good old man whom I had known in former years as a brother in the church and who had formerly known me in church relations and as a city mechanic; but he did not now recognize the old sun-burnt, weather-beaten farmer who stood before him and inquired about fertilizers and as I was not around raking up old acquaintances I just confined my remarks to business. He said; "I can sell you a goods equal to 13 or 14 per cent phosphoric acid" I said "equal to nothing, you know what is on the bag" He said the analysis on the bag only called for 10 per cent, but the goods had been tested beside other high grade goods and had proved to be the equal of a 13 or 14 per cent, article. "I dont buy fertilizer by what some man tells you, who spends more time hunting rabbits than he does studying farming." I said but by the analysis printed on the bag for the purpose of telling sensible farmers what the goods contain. And so I didn't buy of him.

I came on back up the street feeling pretty blue and about concluding that I was not going to find what I wanted, when, as I was about to pass a house I thought here is an old sinner who does not make any pretensions to piety and never did, but as I am not looking for piety but fertilizer and haven't found anything but a low grade of either, I'll try here just for luck. I walked in. "Got any high grade acid phosphate' I inquired. "yes sir," said the dealer "lots of it." The analysis?" I said. "Sixteen per cent. printed on the bag and that's what we go by," said my friend. In ten minutes my wagon was loaded and as we started home I said to my boy: "Son if I ever send you to town to buy fertilizer I want you to play shy of church deacons and Sunday School Superintendents."

My friends this letter has not been written to ridicule any one or merely to amuse the reader; but is a rehearsal of facts just as they occured and in my opinion go far towards answering the question; "why the world is not more rapidly being converted to the Christian Religion.

The above from the pen of Ploughboy, in the Union Republican, if true and there is no cause to doubt it, should cause our church people to do some thinking, for a church is surely judged by the outside world by the daily life of its members And if Sunday religion will do to live with, it will not do to die with. For this kind of religion will not last beyond the grave.

TEN COMMANDMENTS OF HYGIENE.

Rise early, retire, early, and fill your day with work

Water and bread maintain life; pure air and sunshine are indispensable to health.

Frugality and sobriety form the best elixir of longevity.

Cleanliness prevents rust; the best cared for machines last the longest.

Enough sleep repairs waste and strengthens, too much sleep softens and enfeebles.

To be sensibly dressed is to give freedom to one's movements and enough warmth to be protected from sudden changes of temprature.

A clean cheerful house makes a happy home.

The mind is refreshed and invigorated by distractions and amusement; but abuse of them leads to dissipation and dissipation to vice.

Cheerfulness makes love of life, and love of life is half of health. On the contrary, sadness and discouragement hasten[illegible] old age.

Do you gain your living by your intellect? Then do not allow your arms and legs to grow stiff. Do you earn your bread by your pickaxe? Do not forget to cultivate your mind and to enlarge your thought.—From a French Medical Review.

THE STRENGTH OF THE TWO PARTIES.

Various prognostications are now under way as to what States will go Republican and what Democratic at the National election next year and as to the number of votes each party will get in the electoral college. Prominent among the prognosticators is Representative Grosvenor of Ohio, and he is so closely "situated," to the "great prognosticator," Senator Hanna, that it makes one feel that he is getting mighty close to the actual situation. But the situation seems to be by no means alarming. The total number of electoral votes will be 476—239 being necessary to a choice—and Mr. Grosvenor figures that the Republicans will get 263, as a certainty from the following States:

California, 10. Colorado, 5. Connecticut, 7. Illinois, 25. Indiana, 15 Iowa, 15. Kansas, 10. Maine, 6. Massachusetts, 16. Michigan 14. Minnesota, 11. Nebraska, 8. New Hampshire, 4. New Jersey, 12. North Dakota, 4. Ohio, 23. Oregon, 4. Pennsylvania, 34. Rhode Island, 4. South Dakota, 4. Vermont, 4 Washington, 5. West Virginia, 7. Wisconsin, 13. Wyoming, 3. Total 263,

The States which are given to the Democratic column are Alabame, Arkansas, Florida, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia, giving in all 151 electoral votes,

The following is put down by Mr. Grovesnor as doubtful States:

Delaware, 3. Idaho, 3. Maryland 8. Montana, 3. Nevada, 3. New York, 39, Utah, 3. Total, 62.

This seems to be a pretty fair forecast, and if it is, the Democrats will be woefully defeated. Conceding that the Democrats would carry every one of the States put down as doubtful, it would mean a victory for the Republicans to the tune of 50 in the electoral college. These figures give cause for a suggestion that if the Democrats want to be in the fight at all next time they had better shake their box well and roll out the best they have. Certainly they need not reserve any as being "too good to run," but it will be necessary to take the best if it has to be the ripe, well-matured fruit which the Charlotte Observer has been mellowing on for lo these many years. viz: G. Cleveland. It may be that it will be a sacrifice of somebody's best, but we know that there are "tides in the times of all men" in which they have got to put their best foot foremost in order to stay in the ring at all And this time is now on with the Democratic party.—Union Republican.

STATE NEWS.

Washington, Nov. 30.—The Supreme Court of the United States through Chief Justice Fuller, today ordered the restoration of the case of the State of South Dakota vs. the State of North Carolina to the docket for argument, and set it down for hearing on January 4th. next. The case involves bonds issued by North Carolina.

Yesterday afternoon Attorney General R. D. Gilmer and Judge James E. Shepherd each received a telegram from James H. McKenney, Clerk of the United States Supreme Court, as follows.

"South Dakota against North Carolina ordered for re-argument. Assigned January 4th. next."

Asheville, N. C, Nov. 30.—The case of State vs. J. V. Jay, charged with murder, has ended and the jury is now considering the verdict. When court convened this morning the solicitor asked that the case, which was closed Saturday shortly before midnight, be re-opened and Dr Paul Paquin, witness for the defense, be recalled. Judge Jones declined to allow this and instructed the attorneys to proceed with the argument. J. Frazier Glenn who has assisted solicitor Brown, then spoke. Mr. Glenn was followed by Judge H B. Carter for the defense, who in turn was followed by ex-State Senator W. J. Cocke, also for the defense. Solicitor Brown closed the argument this afternoon, after which Judge Jones charged the jury in a very able manner. It is hardly expected that a verdict will be returned before tomorrow morning.

Ashville, N. C., Dec. 1.—The verdict of the jury in the Jay case this morning was guilty of murder in second degree. The verdict was rendered after the jury had been out since last evening. A motion for a new trial was overruled. Judge Jones remarked from the bench that he thought it would be better for the prisoner to be sent to the penitentiary and that no appeal be taken. The judge thanked the jury and declared that a just verdict had been returned. Attorneys for the defense have given notice of appeal over the prisoner's protest.

On the way to the jail from the court house Jay told Sheriff Reed that he did not want to appeal; that he wanted to go on to the penitentiary and begin serving his sentence so he could soon get a pardon. He will be sure to get pardoned in a few months if he is in good standing with the Aycock Simmons machine.

Salisbury, Nov. 23.—Rowan Superior Court convened here this morning Judge W. R. Allen presiding. The day was largely taken up with empaneling and charging the jury. The case that is attracting the widest attention at this term of court is that of the White Brothers charged with the killing of Russel Sherrill, at Mt. Ula, Rowan county, about September 30

Asheville, Nov. 23.—The suit of the Western Savings Fund Society of Philanelphia against the county of Buncombe, which has been in progress in the United States Circuit Court for the past three days, was decided this morning in favor of the plaintiff.

Asheville, N. C. Nov. 23.—An extra freight train, westbound, engine number 1347, was wrecked near Balsam last night about eleven o'clock. Engineer D. Guy Moore was killed. The official report this morning was to the effect that brakeman Charles Porter, of Andrews, was missing, and that three others received injuries. The engine was not derailed, but the eight cars attached were and also much damaged.

Engineer Moor lost control of the train while descending the steep grade of Balsam Mountain which is about 25 miles west of Asheville on the Murphy brauch of the Southern.

Kinston, Nov. 23—The jury that tried Emmet Boyette for the murder of his seventeen year old wife, under circumstances that were most horrible and agravating, were given the case on Saturday night. The defense was a plea of insanity. The preponderating evidence was against that plea. After a clear cut and able charge by Judge George H. Brown, the jury retired They brought in on Sunday their vereict and he was aquitted on the plea of insanity.

Judge Brown's opinion of the case was indicated by the language he addressed to the jury after they rendered their verdict which astonished the Judge and the people. The judge said;

"Gentlemen of the jury. In my long judicial experience I have never measured a jury and it is not my purpose to censure you now. I am bound to believe that you acted conscientiously But I cannot help feeling that you have made a very grave mistake in entirely acquitting this prisoner. Your verdict will be a staggering blow to the proper administration of justice in this county, I fear for years to come"

Laurinburg, N. C., Dec. 1—Two cases of special importance at this term of court are State vs. Graves for the murder of Lawrence Scott, and State vs. Tyson (Morrison) for the murder of Combs a few days ago The first of these cases has been set for Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and a special venire of one hundred men has been summoned from which to get the jury. It is very likely that the other will be continued.

Two murder cases in one county at the same court is a pretty good record along this line, but Laurinburg need not feel lonesome, for it has been thus all over the state since the organization of Aycock-Simmons Red Shirt brigade.

ROOSEVELT IS HONEST.

That President Roosevelt is determined that no one guilty of wrong doing in government affairs shall escape unpunished, and that he regards duty above office is evident from the fact that regardless of high social standing and political influence, those who are guilty must suffer punishment. In this connection we take the following from the November issue of the Review of Reviews:

Fortunately there are some things about which President Roosevelt does not think it necessary either to parley or to be tender and considerate; and one of those things is simple honesty We will take the liberty to put on record an unpublished incident that may serve, once for all, to illustrate exactly the way Mr. Roosevelt has been dealing with all cases of a similar nature. One day last month a certain Congressman visited him in the interest of a certain well known man, prominent in State politics but not in the government employ, whose relations to certain postal contracts were such that there seemed imminent dangar of his being indicted for conspiracy or bribery or both. Not content with a verbal explanation of his attitude toward the business President Roosevelt followed up the interview with a letter to the Congressman. The letter with name omitted is as follows;

[Personal]

White House, Washington;
October — 1903

My dear Congressman;

The statement alleged to have been made by the Inspector that I ordered the indictment of ..... or anyone else is a lie, —just as much a lie as if it had been stated that I ordered that any one should not be indicted. My directions have been explicit and are explicit now. Any one who is guilty is to be prosecuted to the full extent of the law and no one who is not guilty is to be touched. I care not a rap for the political or social influence of any human being when the question is one of guilt or inocence in such a matter as to the corruption of the Government service.

I note what you say, that the circulation of this report about me may alienate the support of many of ——'s friends from my administration. Frankly, I believe that any one who would believe such a story must be lacking in intelligence or else possessed of malignant credulity. If any one is to be be alienated from me by the fact that I direct the prosecution Republican or Democrat, whose regard to social or political standing when it appears that he is guilty of gross wrongdoing,—why all I can say si let him be alienated

If District Attorney ..... has anything which should be known to the Attorney General or to me as regards this suit I should be delighted to see him. But frankly, I have not the slightest desire to see him if his visit is to be in the interest "of the welfare of the party," or of my "success." In a case like this, where the crime charged is one that strikes at the foundation of the commonwealth, I should hold myself unfit for this office if I considered for one moment either my own welfare, or the interest of the party, or anything else except the interest of justice.

Respectfully,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
